Report of the Sister in Charge

The beginning of another year reminds us all that time is a fast traveller, living always in the present and hurrying on towards the future, and although in our yearly report we must cast many backward glances, it is only that we too may make the present more alive than ever before and carry along with us into the future the interest and co-operation of our friends. "The chain of friendship stretching far links days that were with days that are," and so for the days that are to be we look forward with assurance and hope.

The number of patients admitted during the last twelve months is smaller than usual, only thirty-nine as against fifty-seven in the previous year. This decrease arises chiefly from the fact that the Boston Consumptives' Hospital has ceased to send its colored women patients to us, the Hospitals at Mattapan having been so enlarged as more than to meet the needs of the City of Boston for its tubercular cases. This is a real financial loss to us for the ready money which we got from City Hall each month, though it did not entirely cover the expense of the Ward, helped materially in paying our bills. Our sleeping porch, especially built for the Fresh Air work, is thus rendered useless during the winter months and our capacity for patients consequently lessened. The Ward itself we have temporarily filled with dear old folk who flock to us from every quarter, glad of a haven of rest in their old age and illness. But we greatly regret not having the opportunity to minister to those young girls and women for whose care we were so well equipped.

The final alterations in our Extension are most satisfactorily accomplished and the completion of the Chapel, our heart's desire, gives us daily gratification and inspiration. Our sincere thanks and appreciation are offered to the architect, Mr. Edmund Q. Sylvester, not only for the work done but also for the free-will offering of his professional services in the decorating and furnishing of the Chapel. The Altar, Reredos, Choir Stalls, Windows and Electric Lighting are the gift and the memorial of one much loved who has entered into his rest. We would also express our thanks to Mrs. Hugh W. Ogden, for Linoleum for the floor of the Chapel and Sacristy; Mrs. William H. Rowley, Sanctuary Lamp, in memoriam W. H. R.; Mrs. Edith R. Darrach, six Vesper Candlesticks, in memoriam J. M. D.; Cooper L. Saunders, Cabinet Organ. There were also several offerings of money which are chronicled in due order among the List of Donations.

The late afternoon of a brilliant day in early September was the time chosen for the blessing of the Chapel, and Bishop Lawrence was greeted by a goodly number of Clergy and friends. The Service was simple and dignified with the old familiar hymns and prayers. The Bishop expressed himself as well pleased with the Chapel and its surroundings and heartened us up with his words of encouragement and approval. It was a day long desired and long to be remembered.

To show Bishop Lawrence's attitude towards the work here we may be pardoned if we quote from his sermon at the Diocesan Convention in Trinity Church: "Those who have once visited St. Monica's Home, Roxbury, the former home of William Lloyd Garrison, will never cease to remember the beautiful work of the Sisters of St. Margaret in behalf of the aged colored women and the incurables of all ages. One of the gifts richest in sentiment to the Church Pension Fund was an offering a few weeks ago from the patients of this Home because of their Bishop's interest in the Fund."

We had the pleasure of two visits from Bishop Babcock during the year. At the first visit in April three of our patients were confirmed, and in July, the hottest day in the season, he kindly came again from his summer home to confirm dear Aunt Fanny. Those of us who were privileged to see her radiant face realized as perhaps never before the power and inspiration that comes from "the Laying on of Hands."

The members of the Ladies' Aid Association still stand pre-eminently in the forefront as our helpers and advisers in all needs and perplexities, never failing to supply an extra check when the funds get too low, and by their frequent visits to the Home bringing much cheer and brightness to us all.

It is with a deep-seated sorrow and sense of loss that we record the passing away from us of our dear friend, Mrs. Joseph P. Loud, or, as she always called herself, Mae Hallowell Loud, for ten years a member of the Association. Her intense interest in all that pertained to our well-being and her sincere sympathy with our many patients made them feel that she was to each one of them that marvelous gift of God, "a personal friend."

The members of the medical staff are, as always, most kind and attentive, rendering their service regularly and often at great inconvenience to themselves, and being always ready to respond to an emergency. For all this they have our sincere thanks. The necessity of accepting Dr. Preble's resignation was much regretted.

Among our many benefactions we would especially mention the gift of Mrs. Henry B. Ogilby, who most generously redecorated the Darley Ward, and equipped it with new iron bedsteads and hair mattresses, as a memorial to her sister, Esther Freeman McCabe.

The "giving spirit" of the age has penetrated even to the hearts and purses of our sick and aged patients, and our charities have been more or less world-wide. Once a month at our Sunday Morning Service, usually conducted by one of the Sisters, we pass around a little box securely locked and with the traditional hole in the top, and into this the pennies, nickels and dimes are dropped, always with some special object in view which has already been talked over and explained. We began with the Church Pension Fund, for which we had honorable mention by the Bishop at the General Convention at St. Louis, and this was followed by the Edith Cavell Memorial, The Belgian Relief, The Children of America Relief Fund, The United Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary, and our last collection purchased ear-rings, pins and beads for the little Igorot girls at Sagada in the Philippine Islands, in answer to a special appeal from one of the girls. This last may seem "frivolous," but we must all have our recreations as well as our duties!

Like many another House of Charity we are continuously asking for just $4,000 more to clear off our indebtedness. Strange and unpractical as this may seem to outsiders, it is nevertheless a fact that subscriptions always fall far short of the sum asked for, and repairs, alterations and general cost of living always exceed by many figures the official budget. We still have a mortgage to pay off, borrowed money to return, the every-day expenses and monthly bills, which recur with unfailing regularity.

In concluding this report we feel the necessity of emphasizing the fact that our income for 1917 will be fully $2,000 less than in previous years, owing to the loss of our tubercular patients. This, with the high cost of living, when even the necessities of life, coal, flour, sugar, are greatly increased in price, and the removal by death of many of our oldest and most substantial friends and subscribers, makes our financial condition an ever-present anxiety. To meet this deficit we desire most of all an increase in our list of annual subscribers, whether through our "Day's Support Fund,"—we still have three hundred unoccupied days to choose from — or the promise of a fixed sum, more or less than the Day's Support, which we nominally place at $15.00. An Endowment Fund is our ideal, but this can only be contemplated when we are assured of our current expenses and are free from debt and mortgage.

SISTER VERA MARGARET, S. S. M.,
Sister in Charge and Treasurer.

Medical Report

I have the honor of presenting the following report for the medical staff of St. Monica's Home. The medical side of the work has been affected a good deal by closing the Tuberculosis Ward, where much of our most active assistance has in the past been given. We shall all be glad when circumstances permit its reopening. There is nothing of any great moment to say about the remaining patients; some of the familiar faces have disappeared, but most of them are unchanged.

Dr. Sherburne, who was to have been one of us in 1916, was prevented from doing so by illness; we were fortunate in obtaining Dr. F. C. Gunter to take his place. Dr. Preble feels that he will be unable to continue in 1917; his place is still open.

As usual, we wish to express our appreciation of the many courtesies which we have enjoyed at the hands of Sisters and nurses alike; they make our periods of duty both pleasant and profitable.

For the Medical Staff,

WILLISTON W. BARKER, M.D.
Senior Physician.

Chaplain's Report

The year has been eventful. Bishop Lawrence blessed the Chapel and its Altar on September eighth. Mrs. Fanny Banks, whose age is just one hundred and ten, received her Confirmation and Communion in July. Bishop Babcock came for Confirmation twice. On March twelfth the candidates were Cora Rainey, Mrs. Lucy Burton, and Mrs. Mary Weever. Baby Christopher has been baptized. There have been more than two hundred public Services.

What the Sisters and good friends have done religiously, one cannot estimate. Much of Holy Scripture has been read, discussed and memorized. All those in need throughout the world were prayed for faithfully, especially the soldiers and the sailors in the war in Europe. Festivals were kept with song and gladness. We were sorry that we had to part with the tuberculosis patients, for they were a blessing to the household and the neighborhood. The suffering Christian brings down grace from Heaven upon us all. That is why we never come to such a place as this, or go from it, without enrichment of our life and that of others, here and elsewhere. How much they miss who know not of an atmosphere where love and prayer are working ceaselessly!

EDWARD EVERETT,
Chaplain.

Report of the Ladies' Aid Association

The year opened with a sad loss to the Board and Home in the death of Mrs. J. P. Loud, for ten years a member of the Board, and for six years its treasurer. From staunch abolition stock, Mae Hallowell Loud took a keen interest in the welfare of colored people, and met the patients at St. Monica's on a footing peculiarly her own. It was noted that they responded to this, and that her visits gave a peculiar pleasure. To her associates on the Board this enthusiasm for the work was a constant inspiration. At the February meeting a vote of sympathy was passed and the secretary asked to send the same to Mr. Loud, and Miss McIntosh was appointed a delegate to represent the Board at two memorial meetings. At the latter meeting, in Park Street Church, Miss McIntosh spoke of Mrs. Loud's service to St. Monica's.

The responsibilities of the Board have been increased this year by the withdrawal of the city's tubercular patients, a measure of economy for the city, but a loss of revenue to the Home. Only the courage and the resourcefulness of the Sister in Charge makes such a reduction in income less than a calamity, but we earnestly hope that at this time our old friends will give us renewed support, and that new ones may be raised up for us.

In many ways the year just passed has been a successful one. The meetings have been well attended, and visitors to the Home have expressed pleasure in their visits, and approval of all they found there. We are so used to the contented atmosphere of the patients at St. Monica's, and to their general air of well-being, that the ability shown in the management of the Home needs to be constantly borne in mind.

Donation Day this year was fair, and besides gifts of household supplies, etc., the sum of $283 was received and voted to the Extension Fund. This is a delightful day for seeing the Home, and giving cheer to the inmates and encouragement to the good Sisters. We wish that more people would take advantage of it, and go out during the day, or for a cup of tea later in the afternoon, when the managers will welcome them.

We should be glad of a still larger attendance at the annual Fair. It was held again this year at the Copley-Plaza, and a somewhat larger amount was made. Sister Vera's food products were as usual in demand, and St. Monica's Sewing Circle had its household table. We are justly proud of the good luncheon served, and next year afternoon tea will be a prominent feature.

On September 8th the Chapel in the Extension was blessed by Bishop Lawrence. It was a surprise to find this beautiful little sanctuary where the forlorn parlors of the old house had been, and warm appreciation was expressed for the work of the architect and the gifts made by the relatives of the Sister in Charge.

The last event of the year is the Christmas celebration. The tree was lighted on the afternoon of December 27th in the ward where Aunt Fanny, now 110, and other aged patients were able to enjoy it. Friends of the inmates as well as members of the Ladies' Aid were present, and all passed off well:

That the coming year may free us entirely from debt and extend our usefulness in any needed direction, is the earnest hope of everyone connected with St. Monica's.
